

ANA G MENDEZ UNIVERSITY
STUDENT CONSUMER INFORMATION
Professional Licensure Notification

If you are interested in pursuing an academic program that requires licensure or certification in your state, we encourage you to contact the appropriate state licensure Board for guidance before enrolling in an academic program outside your state. Please note that individual state requirements may change.

At this time, Ana G. Mendez University is unable to determine if an academic program will satisfy the licensure/certification requirements beyond the state of Florida. Please check the licensing or certification requirements for the appropriate licensure or certification state Board or agency for your state.
